

Contents

| | |
|--|------|
| Preface | xi |
| The Author | xvii |
| 1. Introduction: New Faculty—A Neglected Resource | 1 |
| Part One: Obstacles Confronting New Faculty Members | |
| 2. Gaining the Acceptance of Colleagues | 19 |
| 3. Establishing Teaching Styles and Skills | 51 |
| 4. Developing Habits of Writing Productivity | 81 |
| Part Two: Helping New Faculty Overcome Obstacles | |
| 5. Mentoring to Build Collegiality | 107 |
| 6. Establishing Basic Teaching Skills | 130 |

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 7. Encouraging Scholarly Productivity | 160 |
| 8. Helping New Faculty Help Themselves | 184 |

Part Three:
Building an Institutional Support System

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 9. Recruitment and Orientation | 209 |
| 10. Retention and Tenure | 231 |
| 11. Tailoring Programs to Special Needs | 254 |
| 12. Enlisting Chairs and Other Administrators | 286 |
| 13. Strategies for Getting Programs Under Way | 310 |
| Resource: Questionnaire Used to Interview New Faculty | 333 |
| References | 339 |
| Index | 365 |